

TE^E_ASE

Savory

Beetroot Macaroon, Blackcurrant Jube

Foie gras mousse

Quail & Whiskey Party Pie, Aperol Jube

Charcoal roasted leeks, Swiss brown mushrooms

King Salmon Crudo

Crab, pomegranate, lemon, chives, short-crust

Green Goddess Crisp

Spring vegetables, crispy potato, ikura

Jerusalem Artichoke Panna Cotta

Caviar, brioche, kumquat, gold leaf

Sweet

Scones

Clotted cream, raspberry jam

Mango Delice

Coconut, pineapple, white rum, lime

Matcha Slice

White chocolate, green tea, yuzu, strawberry

Chocolate Praline

Milk chocolate, mixed berry milkshake

Fluer de noisette

Cacao tartlets, hazelnut, vanilla cream, salted caramel

The Egg

Tahitian vanilla panna cotta, white chocolate, passion fruit, kataifi pastry

At Araksa, everything begins with people, employing people from the Aka, Hmong and Lisu Hill tribes.

The tea is grown in the foothills of the Banchang Forest in Chiang Mai, the only organic certified tea plantation in Thailand.

Loose Leaf Tea

Black

Yarm Chao English Breakfast

Meaning “dawn”, this traditional blend offers robust flavors of vanilla, wood, malt, and spices

Silk Black

Grown in the evergreen hills of Chiang Mai, this tea is rich amber with sweet floral, honey, and fruit notes

Than Khun Earl Grey

Black tea with Sicilian bergamot oil. Woody, citrusy and rich with vanilla

Gularb

Black tea mixed with Bishop & Thai Morn roses.

This blend is fruity, sweet, with a hint of clove spice.

Drinking it will leave one feeling relaxed and restored

Oolong

Lhong Lai

Meaning “longing for”, this golden tea smells of exotic flowers, honey, and green forest

Green

Thida

A bright and lively tea with fresh floral, honey and nutty notes.

High in antioxidants

Cheeva

A blend of green tea and makrut leaf.

Zesty & invigorating with a burst of bright citrus flavor

White

Arun

Harvested early morning to minimize the amount of water content in the leaves, providing a more concentrated flavor.

Soothing with a slight touch of honey on the palate, provides an aroma of wildflowers and greenery

Herbal

Pai Lin

Caffeine-free blend combining ginger and butterfly pea flower, promotes digestion and boosts the immune system

Select one tea
from the above